IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF LAWRENCE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Case No. 70017-24

In RE: Unopened Alleyway in Village of New Bedford located between Lots 28 and 29 of the Village of New Bedford Plan as Recorded in Mercer County Plot Book 1, Page 548

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

I. PARTIES TO THE ACTION

1. Your Complainant, David L. Johnson, is an adult individual of sound mind who currently resides at 436 State Route 208, New Bedford, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. Pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A. §931(a), jurisdiction is appropriate in the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County.

3. Pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A. §931(c), venue is appropriate in the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County.

III. STATEMENT OF FACTS

4. Your Complainant is the owner of multiple parcels of property in New Bedford, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania. Particularly, your

Complainant owns the following parcels of land:

a. Parcel 29-3710-129, Lot Number 29 of the Village of New Bedford Plan as recorded in Mercer County Plot Book 1 Page 548;

b. Parcel 29-3719-128, Lot Number 28 of the Village of New Bedford Plan as recorded in Mercer County Plot Book 1 Page 548.

5. Traversing between these above-identified parcels of land is an unopened alleyway. See Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

6. The alleyway has never been ordained as a public passageway by the municipality of New Bedford.

7. More than twenty-one (21) years have expired since the creation of the plan of lots and, particularly, the alleyway in question.

8. No other person within the Village of New Bedford has ever utilized the alleyway for ingress, egress or regress to their property.

9. Since your Complainant became the record owner of the subject properties, he has enclosed the unopened alleyway by erecting a fence.

10. Pursuant to the laws of this Commonwealth, upon the expiration of twenty-one years, the municipality of New Bedford lost its right to ordain the alleyway as a public passageway and, therefore, ownership of the property reverted to the abutting landowners subject to the easement rights of other landowners within the plan of lots.

11. More than twenty-one (21) years has expired since your Complainant erected a fence and enclosed the unopened alleyway.

12. As a result of the erection of the fence around the boundary of the alleyway, no person has ever used or otherwise had access to the alleyway.

13. Your Complainant submits that any easement rights that were obtained by other landowners within the plan of lots were forfeited and your Complainant is now the owner of the land in fee simple.

IV. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory and Injunctive Relief

14. The preceding paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

15. As set forth above, Plaintiff is the owner of multiple parcels of land that abut an unopened alleyway.

16. Plaintiff erected a fence around the parcels of land, which encapsulated the alleyway and prevented any person from utilizing the alleyway for ingress, egress and regress purposes.

17. The Village of New Bedford never adopted the alleyway as a public passageway and more than twenty-one (21) years since the alleyway's creation has passed.

18. For a period in excess of twenty-one years, no person other than Plaintiff has enjoyed the use of the alleyway.

19. An actual controversy exists under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as any person within the Village of New Bedford has an easement right to utilize the alleyway for ingress, egress and regress purposes.

20. Plaintiff submits that all persons within the village of New Bedford forfeited their right to use the alleyway for ingress, egress and regress purposes as the alleyway has been restricted from any such use for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years but instead has been under the sole access and control of Plaintiff.

21. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff submits that he possesses the absolute and exclusive right to possession and ownership of the alleyway to the exclusion of all others for any purpose he deems proper.

22. The rights and duties Plaintiff and all other residents of the Village of New Bedford will be immediately affected by the enforcement of Plaintiff's Declaratory Relief action.

23. No adequate remedy other than that requested in this complaint exists by which the rights of the Plaintiff and the residents of the Village of New Bedford may be determined.

24. This action is brought under the Declaratory Judgments Act, 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 7531 to 7541.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

QUIET TITLE – ADVERSE POSSESSION

25. All preceding paragraphs of this Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

26. Plaintiff is the legal owner of the parcels of land identified in Paragraph 4 of this Complaint, which are situated in the Village of New Bedford.

27. At the time of the creation of the Village of

New Bedford, a paper alleyway was identified on the plan, which traverses Plaintiff's property.

28. Since the creation of the alleyway, the Village of New Bedford has never utilized or maintained it.

29. Presently, the alleyway is grass-filled and only Plaintiff has maintained it.

30. More than twenty-one (21) years have elapsed since the creation of the alleyway without the Village of New Bedford adopting it as a public passageway.

31. In accordance with 36 P.S. §2131, "Whenever any highway, street, court, or alley, shall be vacated, or hath been vacated, by authority of law, the adjoining owner or owners shall be authorized to reclaim the same, to the centre thereof, unless the ground was originally taken in unequal proportions from the then owners thereof, and in such case, the adjoining owners shall reclaim, in the proportion contributed by such owners, or by those under whom they shall have derived their titles."

32. Since purchasing the parcels identified above, Plaintiff cared for the entire portion of alleyway which abuts all herein named parties properties and exercised complete dominion and control over the same as evidenced by the erection of a fence incapsulating the alleyway more than twenty-one (21) years ago.

33. Plaintiff demonstrated his actual possession of the land for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years by performing the following acts: mowing the lawn and planting and caring for shrubbery and vegetation and other forms of plant life thereon and erecting a fence, which incapsulated the entirety of the alleyway.

34. Plaintiff's possession of the land was visible and notorious possession for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years as they performed the various acts named above in the presence of other land owners within the subdivision during all hours of the day.

35. Plaintiff's possession of the land was distinct and exclusive for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years and was of a type of possession which would characterize that of the owner, as the Plaintiff solely cared for the land during this period of time.

36. Plaintiff's possession of the land during this twenty-one (21) year period was hostile as evidenced by the fact that Plaintiffs' cared for the land even though others in the Village of New Bedford had the right of ingress, egress and regress against their easement rights.

37. Plaintiff's possession and control of the land was continuous and uninterrupted for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years as evidenced by the fact that the Plaintiffs have continued to care for the land and plant and cultivate vegetation since the date of ownership and in excess of twenty-one (21) years, erected a fence encapsulating the alleyway.

38. Plaintiff asserts that the ownership of the entire portion of the land originally designated as the unnamed alleyway which traverses his land, has vested to the Plaintiff under the doctrine of adverse possession as the Plaintiff have exercised control over the same in an actual, continuous, exclusive, visible, notorious, distinct, and hostile manner for a period in excess of twenty-one (21) years.

39. While the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recognize that all persons within a plan maintain an easement right over an unopened alleyway or roadway, Plaintiff submits that those rights were forfeited and extinguished after he incapsulated the subject alleyway and no person within the Village used or attempted to use the alleyway within the past twenty-one years.

40. Since the Plaintiff incapsulated the alleyway and restricted its use, no person, property owner, nor any heirs, assigns and personal representatives of any such person have made any attempts to enforce their claim or easement interest over the subject alleyway.

41. Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that no person, property owner, nor any of their heirs, assigns, or personal representatives have any intention of asserting a right of title or interest in the subject property and it is necessary to quiet title to the subject property to prevent waste and provide the Plaintiff with an unencumbered clear title of record and ownership of the alleyway.

42. The Plaintiff has standing to institute this action to Quiet Title based upon the interest he obtained in the subject property by way of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court

a. For judgment that the Plaintiff is the fee simple owner of all right, title, claim and interest in and to the property identified as the unnamed alleyway which traverses Lots 28 and 29 of the within Village of New Bedford Plan as recorded in the Mercer County Plot Book 1 Page 548, located in New Bedford, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania.

b. For judgment that no landowner in the Village of New Bedford has any easement right or any other right, title, estate, claim or interest in or lien on the real property known as the unnamed alleyway which traverses Lots 28 and 29 of the within Village of New Bedford Plan as recorded in the Mercer County Plot Book 1 Page 548, located in New Bedford, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania;

c. Any other relief this Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully Submitted,
